

INTRODUCTION: 61255 is a vesicular, cindery black glass (Fig. 1), containing one prominent pure white clast. The glass has several broken surfaces. 61255 was taken from a soil sample collected from the top of a trench dug on the east rim of Plum Crater. It lacks zap pits.

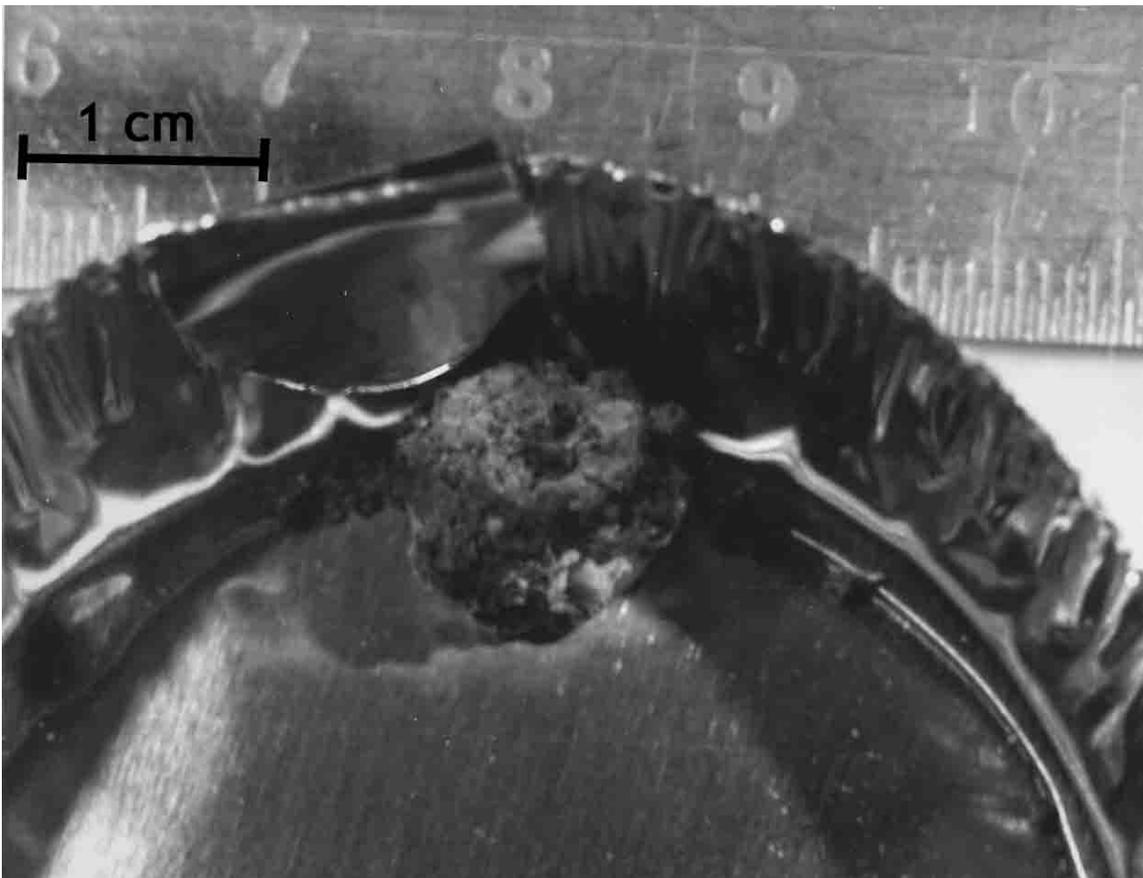

FIGURE 1.