

INTRODUCTION: 64525 is a white, rounded, friable sample (Fig. 1). It contains no mafic minerals or lithic clasts but rare black flecks are present. It is almost certainly a cataclastic anorthosite. It was taken from a soil sample collected near the rim of a subdued 15 m crater. It lacks zap pits.

FIGURE 1.