

INTRODUCTION: 64589 is a moderately coherent, white anorthosite (Fig. 1) collected as a rake sample. Macroscopically, individual crystals appear to be several mm long. Zap pits are absent.

PROCESSING AND SUBDIVISIONS: In 1975 two small chips (,1 and ,2) were removed and allocated to Bell. In 1979 these chips were returned unopened to JSC.

FIGURE 1. S-73-17116.