

INTRODUCTION: 65328 is a white, friable anorthosite (Fig. 1). It is subrounded with a granulated appearance. Grain size of the plagioclase ranges up to ~2 mm. Tiny dark specks (<0.05 mm) and a few metallic grains are present. A dark glass crust is present on one face. This rock is a rake sample, and has very few zap pits.

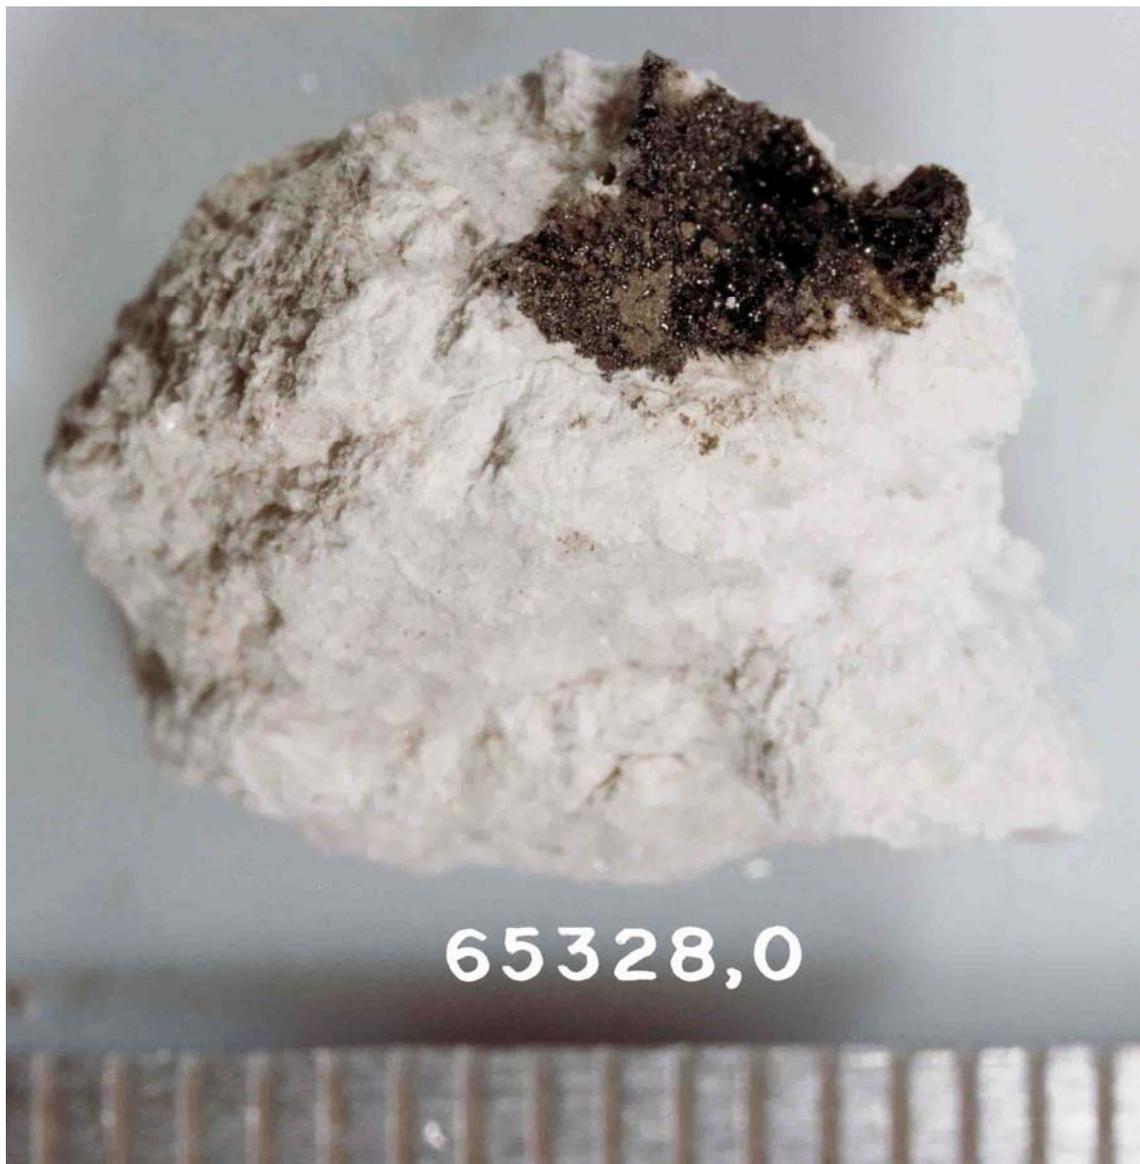

FIGURE 1. Scale division in mm. S-72-47665.