

INTRODUCTION: 65336 is a white, friable anorthosite collected as a rake sample (Fig. 1). It is subangular and has a granular texture. Dark glass coats a portion of one surface. Zap pits are rare.

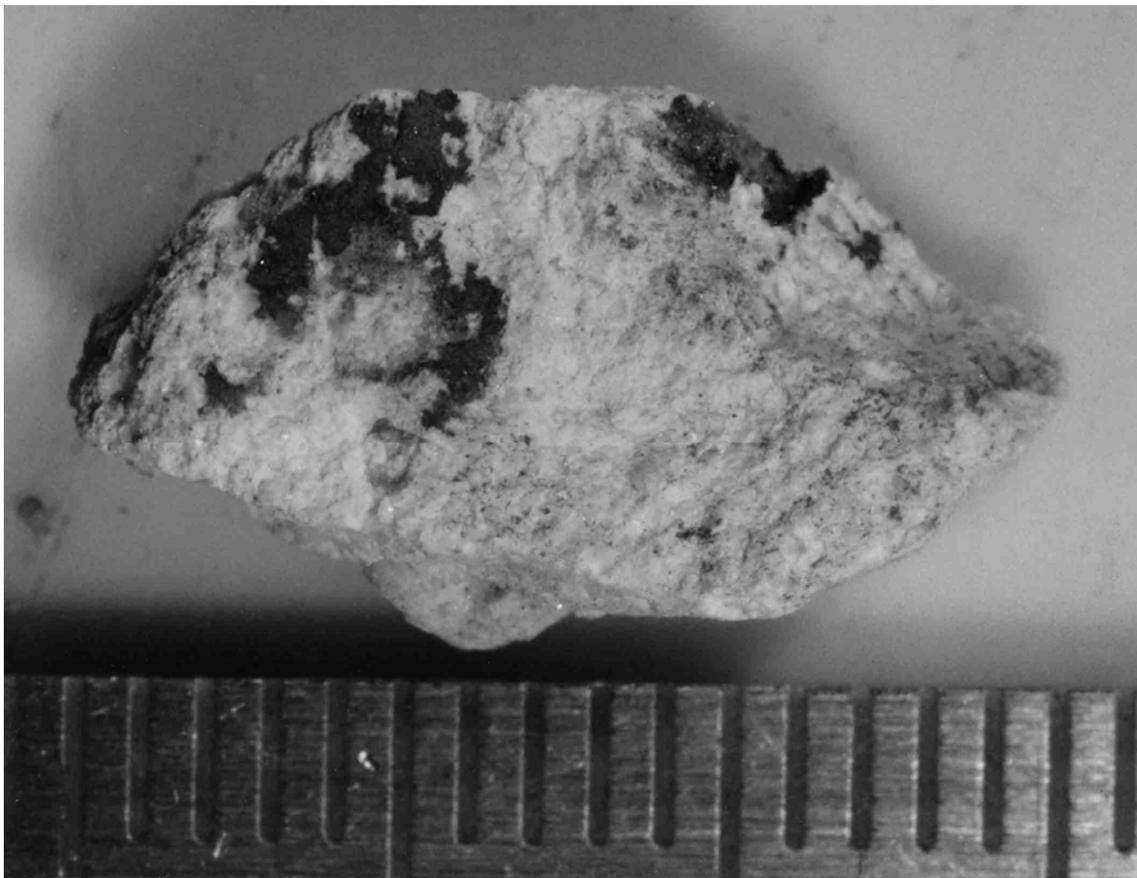

FIGURE 1. Smallest scale division in mm.