

INTRODUCTION: 65756 is a light brownish gray, friable breccia collected as a rake sample (Fig. 1). Clasts of anorthositic material with an associated yellow mafic silicate are common. The rock is subangular and devoid of zap pits.

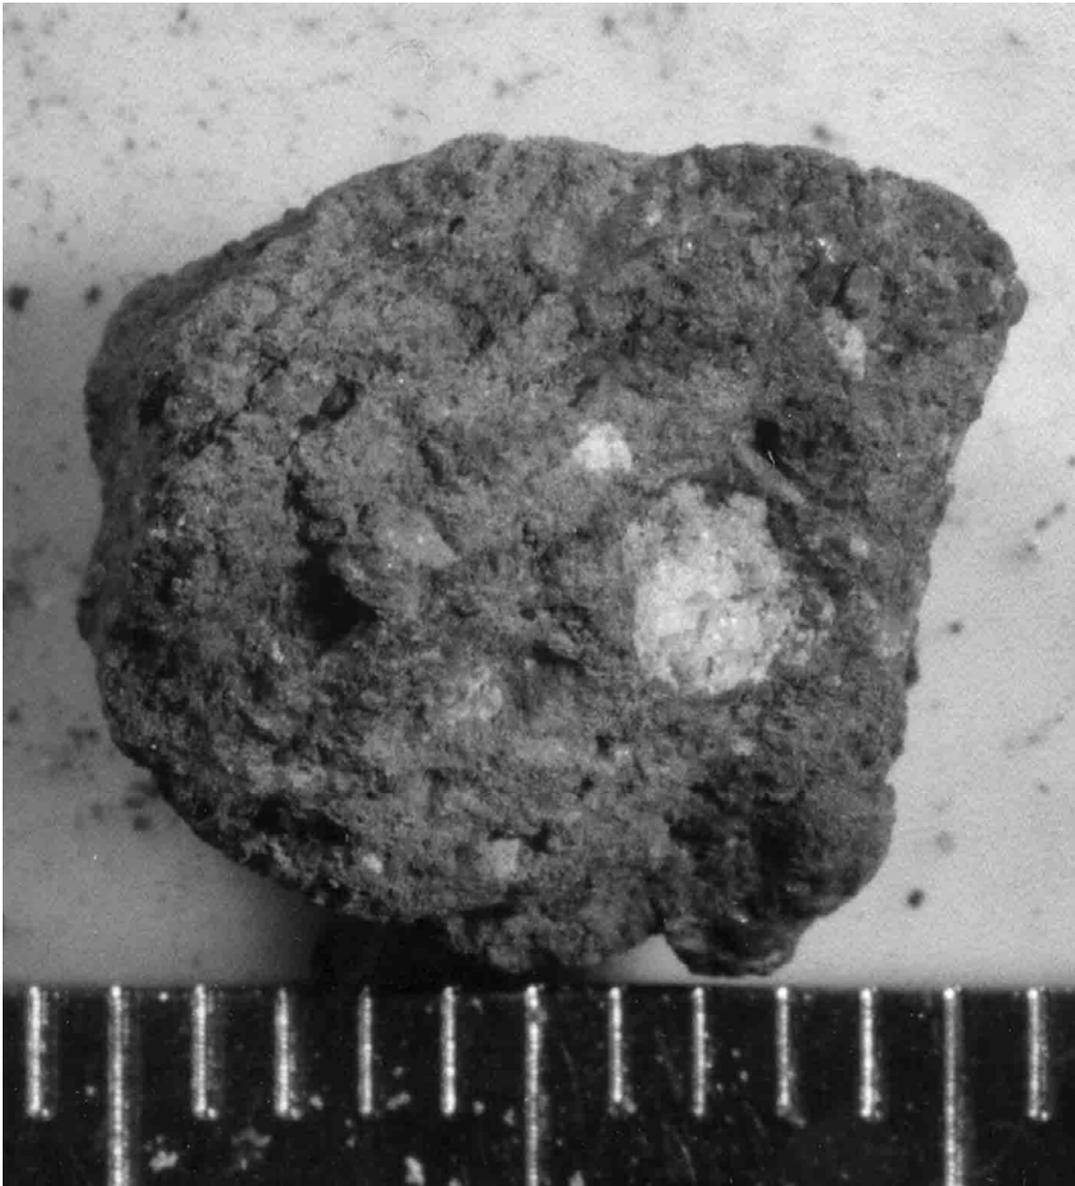

FIGURE 1. Smallest scale division in mm.