

INTRODUCTION: 65759 is a very light gray, coherent anorthosite collected as a rake sample (Fig. 1). It is subangular and has a brecciated texture. Beads of splash glass and a sizable rusty patch decorate the surfaces. Zap pits are absent.

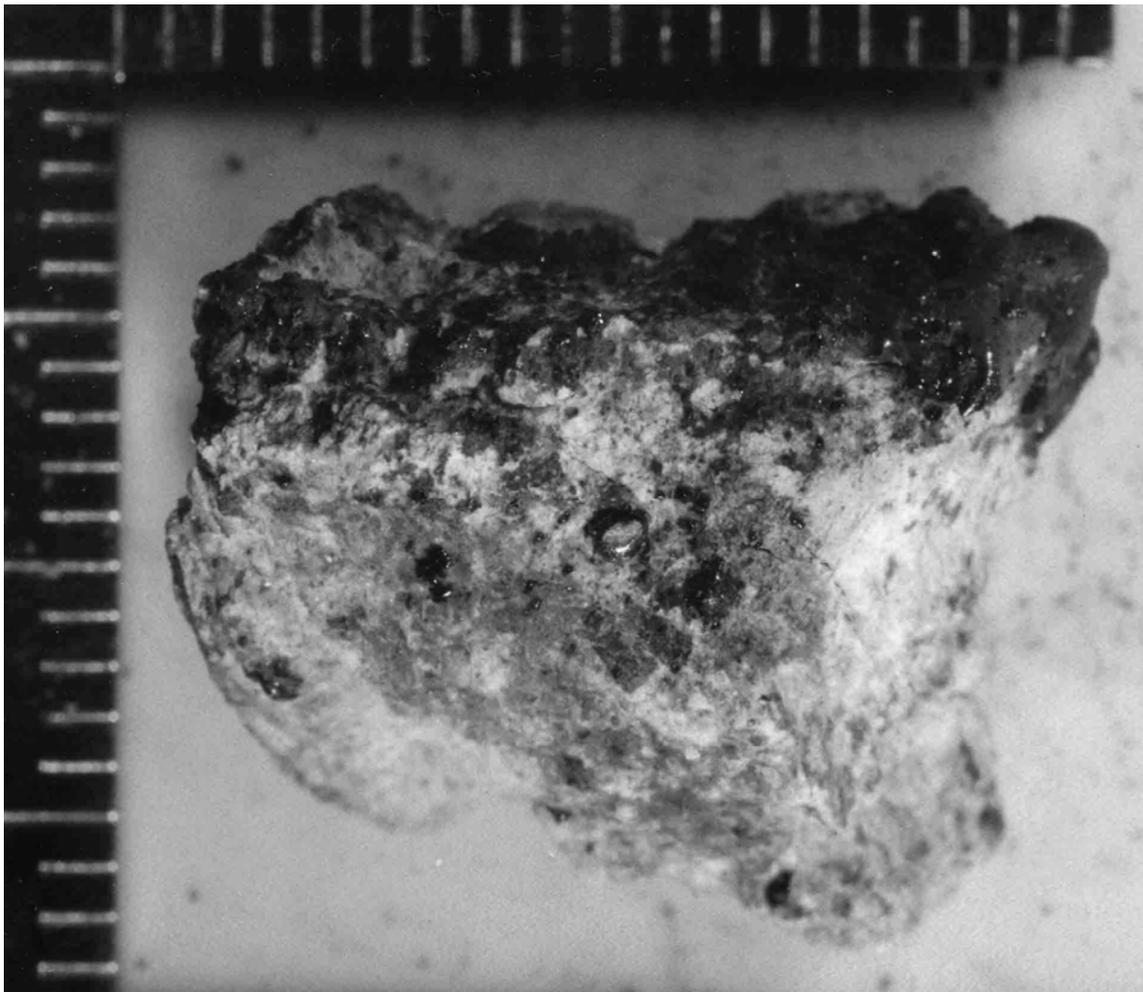

FIGURE 1. Smallest scale division in mm.