

Because of strong degeneracies between Fe-XANES absorption spectra of minerals within a given oxidation state (metal, sulfide,  $\text{Fe}^{2+}$ ,  $\text{Fe}^{3+}$ ) specific mineral identifications are not reliable. Treat these analyses as indicative but not definitive.